

U. D. C. AT MARINE BARRACNS

A social event of this evening of particular interest to the United Daughters of the Confederacy is the ball at the Marine Barracks, which has been loaned to the Hilary A. Herbert Chapter for the evening. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock in the ball room and will be continuous, with supper served in the mezzanine gallery. Mrs. Benjamin Micou, daughter of the late Secretary of the Navy, for whom the chapter is named, will head the receiving party, assisted by Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Mrs. Hannis Taylor, Mrs. William J. Harrison, Mrs. Lee Benoit, Capt. E. H. Jenkins, U. S. M. C., aide to General Lejeune, will act as chairman of the floor committee. The patronesses and subscribers, most of whom will entertain young people for the evening, include the Chief Justice and Mrs. Edward Douglas White, the Attorney General and Mrs. Palmer, the Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Waddy Wood, Congressman and Mrs. Henry D. Flood, Mrs. Joseph E. Thropp, Mrs. E. F. Andrews and the Commandant of Fort Myer and Mrs. Rivers.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Snyder announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Dorothea Snyder to Maxwell M. Mincosky on Sunday December 12. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Loeb of this city. After a wedding reception at the bride's residence, Mr. and Mrs. Mincosky left for a honeymoon trip North.

Precede Ball
At Embassy

THE British Ambassador and Lady Geddes will be hosts at what is perhaps the most interesting event on the calendar tonight—a dance at the British Embassy in compliment to Col. A. F. A. N. Thorne, retiring assistant military attaché of the embassy, and the Hon. Mrs. Thorne, who are leaving Washington tomorrow and will sail next day for England. It is a small dance, the guests invited numbering about 100 and being limited to the friends of Colonel and Mrs. Thorne.

The Ambassador and Lady Geddes are dining with Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Hamlin, who will have a distinguished company to meet them. There are a number of dinner parties on the carpet, guests from which will go on to the embassy dance. Mrs. Charles H. Bromwell and Miss Mildred Bromwell will have guests dining with them. Miss Ruth H. Hix, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Gilbert N. Hitchcock, and Miss Alice Harding, daughter of W. P. G. Harding, of the Federal Reserve Board, will each entertain dinner parties. And Col. John G. Quekemyer, aide to General Pershing, will be host at a "country supper" at Highwood, the home on the edge of town which General Pershing shares with the members of his staff. This promises to be a very delightful party, for there will be informal dancing before the guests go on to the embassy dance. General Pershing will be present, having recently returned from a visit in New York.

Colonel and Mrs. Thorne, who have had a number of farewell parties given in their honor, were entertained at dinner last night by Mrs. Henry C. Corbin. Yesterday they were themselves hosts, giving a luncheon at the Shoreham for twenty guests.

Capt. C. J. Henry, of the British embassy staff, who has been traveling in the United States, returned to town in order to be present at the dance. He will remain until the last of this week and will then sail for England, having been detached from duty at the embassy.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker will be honor guests at a dinner and theater party which Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Charles E. Drake are giving tonight.

Edwin T. Meredith, Jr., and Jennie Parker, of Portland, Ore., who is his classmate at Culver Military Academy, have joined the Christmas party which the Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Meredith are entertaining. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Owen Bohen, are also with them.

TEA POSTPONED.

Mrs. Norman H. Davis, wife of the Undersecretary of State, who was to have given a tea this afternoon for her daughter, Miss Martha Davis, has postponed the hospitality until next Monday owing to the indisposition of Miss Davis, who is a student at Vassar College. She has been obliged to postpone her arrival in Washington.

ton for several days, but will be here in time for Christmas.

Mrs. Charles S. Hamlin will be at home on New Year Day, as has been her custom since coming to Washington. Miss Anna Hamlin has returned to Washington, after visiting Miss Tracy Lyon in New York. She will give a dinner on December 28 in compliment to Miss Alice Harding and will entertain a small house party at that time.

Mrs. Frank L. Smith, wife of Congressman Smith of Illinois, was hostess at luncheon today, her guests being asked to meet Mrs. James R. Mann. In the company were Mrs. Grouitch and Mrs. J. J. de Winter, who is staying with her; Mrs. Henry D. Flood, Mrs. Ira C. Copley, Mrs. Thomas B. Dunn, Mrs. Joseph Hampson, Mrs. Victor Kaufmann and her guest, Miss Miriam H. Day and Miss Eleanor Bryan.

Congressman and Mrs. Smith will leave town on Wednesday to spend Christmas at their home in Dwight, Ill.

Mrs. Charles B. Howry will be at home this afternoon for the first time this season at her home in Sixteenth street. Mrs. Harriman and Mrs. Sara Lee Phillips will preside at the tea table.

Mrs. George Barnett, who has recently taken possession of her new home, 2132 Bancroft place, will be at home this afternoon for the first time this season, her daughter, Miss Anne Gordon, receiving with her.

Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt and Miss Cornelia Vanderbilt are spending Christmas at Biltmore, their place in North Carolina, and Miss K. K. Strong, of Cleveland, is the guest of Miss Vanderbilt for the holidays. Mrs. Vanderbilt will entertain for her daughter on December 31.

Miss Elaine English, who has been visiting in Washington for several weeks, will return to her home in Philadelphia for Christmas.

ON THE CALENDAR YESTERDAY. The Japanese Ambassador and Baroness Shidehara were the guests in whose honor Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cleveland Perkins entertained at dinner last evening.

William Phelps Eno and his cousin, Mrs. George Ehle, entertained a small company at luncheon yesterday and again at dinner for Franklin K. Lane, former Secretary of the Interior, and Mrs. Lane, who are their guests. They also received during the afternoon, when many of Mr. and Mrs. Lane's old friends had an opportunity to welcome them back to Washington.

Owing to the recent serious illness of Mr. Lane, and by his physicians' orders, he is accepting no formal invitations, and during his Washington visit will take little part in general society. He was present to meet many old friends at the afternoon reception, when Mrs. Lane received with Mrs. Ehle, Miss Philip Kaufmann, the former Miss Nancy Lane, and Franklin K. Lane, Jr., also being in the company. Miss Scidmore and Mrs. Richard Harlow did the honors of the tea table.

Mrs. Edson Bradley was at home yesterday afternoon, reopening her Dupont Circle home to society for the first time in several seasons. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley will go to New York for Christmas, but expect to return to Washington in time to revive their hospitable custom of giving a large reception on New Year day.

Mrs. Randall H. Hagner was hostess at a small tea yesterday afternoon, inviting a group of old friends to meet her sister, Mrs. Archibald H. Davis, who is passing the week in Washington, en route to the South. Mr. and Mrs. Hagner also entertained at dinner in compliment to Commander and Mrs. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Titus, who returned Wednesday from California, (Continued on Page Eight.)
